Reverend Monsignor Charles H. Hyland
St. Therese Parish
20 Gledhill Avenue
Everett, Massachusetts 02149

My dear Monsignor Hyland:

I write to offer my sincere congratulations to you, the priests and people of Saint Therese's Parish on the occasion of your Annual Parish Reunion which is to be held on October 22, 1971.

I am looking forward to being with you on this happy occasion and I want to commend you for the obvious efforts you are making to develop and maintain the spirit of friendship and charity among the good people of Saint Therese's Parish. It is by sponsoring events such as this that parish spirituality which is so beneficial to the life of the Church is kept alive. Please be assured of a remembrance in my prayers for the people of God in Everett.

With a hearty blessing, I am

Devotedly yours in Our Lord,

+ Humberto L. Mazzinghi

ARCHBISHOP OF BOSTON

REMEMBERING . . .

Reunions are a time for remembering—what better occasion to look into the past and relive the history of our parish to date.

Some of our parishioners may still recall New Year's morning in 1928 when the first Holy Day Mass was celebrated. That first Mass took place in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall in Glendale Square and was offered by Reverend Father Frederick Allchin. Father Allchin, former curate of St. Paul's Church in Dorchester, had been chosen by His Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell to establish another Catholic Church in the City of Everett.

The response to that first Mass was so great that the need for a larger meeting place was immediately apparent. And so it was that the use of the Rialto Theater, now the site of the Glendale Cooperative Bank, was offered by its two non-catholic owners to the Catholics of Glendale Heights for their religious celebrations. The theater was also used for Sunday School classes. At that time, the temporary rectory was located at 79 Sycamore Street. Later that same month on January 30, the first Parish Reunion was held to celebrate the parish's first month in existence.

While the "theater church" certainly fulfilled a great need in providing a meeting place, it was a temporary arrangement at best. Father Allchin and his parishioners were even more determined to have a church of their own. Both clergy and parishioners began to work in earnest. Many events were held which served the dual purpose of raising money for the planned new church and providing a strong sense of esprit de corps for the parishioners.

Actual construction of the church was begun in July, 1928. Assisting the Pastor during this very busy time was St. Therese's first curate, Reverend Clarence A. Macksey.

The months of hard work finally culminated with the completion of St. Joseph's Chapel which was opened to the public on February 9, 1929. A month later on Easter Sunday, March 31, 1929, came the moment all had waited and worked for—the formal opening of St. Therese's Church.

Time passes quickly in the telling—one can only guess at the sacrifice and hard work that preceded that opening particularly when the records show that the parishioners had earned $37,000 over and above money expended for construction of the church.

Having completed his mission in establishing a new parish in Everett, Father Allchin was transferred to St. Mary's Parish in Charlestown in 1932. He was replaced by Reverend Father Joseph A. Curtin who came from a pastorate in Chelmsford.

On Sunday, October 23, 1933, in the presence of the priests of the parish, other distinguished members of the clergy, and the entire congregation, the church in Glendale Heights was formally dedicated to St. Therese of Lisieux by His Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell. The dream was now a reality—in five years the "theater church" had become a parish.

The building of a church, however, consists of more than the laying of a cornerstone or a dedication ceremony. Throughout its five-year formation, the work of the Church went on. In addition to the observances of daily, Sunday, and Holy Day masses, baptisms, marriages, and funerals were performed. A choir, Sunday School classes, and altar boys were organized. A Sodality in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Holy Name Society, Boys' and Girls' Clubs were inaugurated. The St. Vincent de Paul Society was founded for the care of the destitute, sick, or orphaned. A new rectory in which a parishioner could consult with his parish priest was established; mortgage, building, and every-day expenses were met. All this was done despite depression and hard times. Slowly and steadily through the years the parish grew, adding to its physical properties, organizing, initiating, building . . . ever mindful of the spiritual, social, and recreational needs of its people.

Expansion of church activities soon required the services of another priest, and to help with the growing Sunday School enrollment, Sisters from the order of St. Joseph in Newton came to Everett every Sunday.

Then came the war years. Eleven young parishioners from St. Therese's Parish were lost in the war and a Liturgical Tabernacle was installed in the altar of St. Joseph's Chapel in their memory.

Father Curtin accepted a pastorate in Woburn in 1943. He had successfully guided the church through difficult and confusing years and had paid off the mortgage debt during his pastorate. His successor was Reverend Father Peter J. Linehan.

After the war, the membership of the parish increased in such great numbers that the Chapel was pressed into service once more to accommodate the overflowing number of worshippers at Sunday Masses.

The 20th Anniversary of the Dedication of the Church was celebrated in 1948. His Excellency Archbishop Richard J. Cushing administered Confirmation at the church in honor of the occasion.

The parishioners were saddened in 1951 with the news of the death of Father Macksey and shortly afterward a stone grotto dedicated to Our Lady of Grace was erected in his memory.

Father Linehan who is credited during his pastorate with the acquisition of more land, greater expansion and increased activities within the parish was transferred to Salem in 1956. He was particularly missed by the children for whom he had arranged many bus trips and all-day outings at the beach! Father Linehan was succeeded by the then Father Charles H. Hyland.

At this time, St. Therese's Church had been serving the Parish for twenty-eight years. Time had taken its toll of the interior of the church and repairs and refurbishing were in order. The new pastor had his work cut out for him. Under his direction, the interiors of both the church and chapel were repainted, pews were refinished, and the aisles carpeted, restoring the church to its original beauty.

An even greater need existed, however. Sunday School classes were still being taught in the church proper and the many church organizations were meeting in either the chapel or a rented hall in Glendale Square. St. Therese's Parish now needed a Parish Center. Recognizing the importance of this need, Monsignor Hyland directed that a new Parish Center be built and construction began on June 2, 1964. The completed building was dedicated in May, 1965. Soon all parish activity centered in the building. The seven classrooms and spacious hall incorporated in the building were immediately put to use for Confraternity of Christian Doctrine classes, C.Y.O. activities, Sodality and Holy Name Society meetings, Girl Scout and Boy Scout Troop meetings, social and fund-raising activities. The expanded facilities were a major factor in the growth of many of the parish organizations.

In October 1968, Reverend Father Hyland was elevated to the rank of Monsignor by Archbishop Cushing and a testimonial in his honor was held at the Chateau deVille which coincided with the 40th anniversary of the Parish.

It was during this time that many changes were being introduced into all Roman Catholic Churches. Under Monsignor Hyland's guidance the transitions were introduced at St. Therese's. Some of the latest innovations were the introduction of the Sunday Privilege Mass and the saying of Mass at the two Senior Citizen Residences that lie within the Parish boundaries.

That concludes our look into the past, but what of the present, and the future?

Presently St. Therese's Parish numbers 1600 families or approximately 6,400 parishioners. Its Mass schedule has been expanded to include the Sunday Privilege Mass on Saturday afternoons. In addition to the regular Mass schedule, the parish priests are the official chaplains for Holy Cross Cemetery officiating at interment services, and regularly make Communion Calls to homes and local hospitals for parishioners who are unable to come to church, and are available to all parishioners for counselling.

The same spirit that prevailed among parishioners in the beginning still exists as was recently demonstrated by the Archbishop's Stewardship Fund Appeal when the St. Therese financial quota was not only met but exceeded. The Cardinal's Jubilee Drive three years ago met with similar success.

The young people of the parish are served through Confraternity of Christian Doctrine classes, Scouting, Drill Team and social activities.

In the absence of parochial school training, C.C.D. classes are considered one of the most important functions of the parish. Catechetics are taught to the children from primary grades through four years of high school. Father Foley supervises the program for Grades 1 through 8, while Father O'Gara supervises the older group, Grades 9 through 12. Sixty lay teachers drawn from the ranks of parish members under the supervision of Parish Lay Directress, Winifred Jordan, plus four nuns from Pope John High School provide the teaching staff of the program. Recently the classes have taken on another dimension in the form of an Adult Religious Course given over a six-week period in both spring and fall. Visual aids are used in all classes in an effort to make them more enjoyable and effective. Currently in use is a series of films called "Teachable Moments" which centers around family preparation for the four sacraments—Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation, and Marriage. The catechetical season begins each year on the first Sunday in October and extends through the third Sunday in May.

The GIRL SCOUTS which were originally organized in 1932, were discontinued for a period and reorganized in 1946 by Margaret Cunningham. Gert-rude Jordan who currently heads up the group has been active in scouting for twenty-five years and the Troop Organizer for ten. More than two hundred girls make up the various classifications of Brownies (Ages 7-8), Juniors (Ages 9-11), Cadets (Ages 12-14), Seniors (Ages 14-18) and are part of the Mistick Side Council. The girls are divided into eight troops with two adults, a leader and an assistant, in attendance at all meetings which are held once weekly in the Parish Center.

In addition to projects connected with the achievement of scouting merit badges, the girls have made and distributed Christmas packages and scrapbooks to local hospitals and Senior Citizen Residences. They have also caroled during the Christmas Season and sent baskets to children in orphanages at Easter Time. Several of the girls from this parish have received the Marion Award, which is the highest national Girl Scout award. This award is presented once a year at Holy Cross Cathedral.

The BOY SCOUTS were first organized in 1946. The current membership is close to sixty, divided into five patrols. Ralph Memmolo is the Scoutmaster in charge of the overall program. Most of the boys have graduated into the Boy Scouts from the Cub Scouts and have been active in scouting for many years.

St. Therese's Troop belongs to the Boston Council of Boy Scouts and this past year took part in a government-sponsored national program known as S.O.A.R. (Save Our American Resources). Literally tons of rubbish were collected by the boys at the Metropolitan District Commission Breakheart Reservation in Saugus, and Sheepfold Reservation in Stoneham. Their efforts were rewarded when they were presented with a pennant by M.D.C. Commissioner John W. Sears at the annual Scouting Camporee.

The Troop is sponsored by the church and in addition to regular scouting activities, the boys hold retreats at LaSalette Shrine in Ipswich and during National Boy Scout Week attend Mass in a body.

The CUB SCOUTS are under the direction of Helen Trahan who has been in charge for more than twelve years. There are sixty-five cubs ranging in age from 8-10, divided into nine dens with an equal number of "den mothers." Meetings are held once a week with the emphasis on arts and crafts which are then distributed to relatives and to the elderly. Day trips are arranged throughout the season which ends each year with a Father and Son Banquet.

Many of the boys involved in scouting are also ALTAR BOYS. St. Therese's has a corps of thirty-five altar boys ranging in ages from Grades 4 through 9. After a brief training period by Father Foley, the boys assist at all services of a liturgical nature such as masses, weddings and funerals.

The DRILL TEAM is the latest C.Y.O. activity to be organized at St. Therese's. Father O'Gara is the Spiritual Director for the group which is managed by Anthony Badolato. Mrs. Donald Taylor is the President of the Parents Association. The group comes under the overall direction of Monsignor Robert W. McNeill, C.Y.O. Director for the Archdiocese of Boston. This all-girl unit consists of two classifications, Juniors and Seniors, ranging in ages from 7-19.

The drill team is a marching unit which competes with other units throughout the Archdiocese. They currently participate in two circuits, the C.Y.O. Music Circuit in which they finished third this year, and in the Eastern Massachusetts Drum and Bugle Corps Association in which they finished second. The team is self-supporting on funds from the Parents Association activities, fees from exhibitions, competition prize money, and the returns from the twice-yearly shows which are held in the summer and winter.

The purpose of this activity is to instill discipline, to promote a wholesome spirit of competition, and to provide an opportunity for a closer relationship between the young people and their Spiritual Director.

The two-major adult organizations within the church are the Ladies' Sodality and the Men's Holy Name Society.

St. Therese's SODALITY OF OUR BLESSED LADY held its first regular meeting on Friday, October 31, 1929. The Sodality has remained intact through the years holding regular monthly meetings. Prefect for the Sodality is Winifred Jordan.

The Sodality's continued purpose is for the greater honor and glory of our Blessed Mother and for the spiritual enrichment of its members. The group consists of women who have come together to better obtain the purpose of the Sodality through religious exercise and charitable work. Programs are scheduled throughout the year with professional speakers and are open to all the ladies of the parish. One such speaker was Louella Hennessey, former Kennedy Family nurse, who spoke with great authority on the subject of Mental Retardation.

Socially, the Sodality sponsored an evening at the Boston Pops, an Irish Night Program for the Senior Citizens, and ended their year with a banquet at the Towne Lyne Restaurant.

The HOLY NAME SOCIETY was organized at the same time as the Sodality. Its President is Marcus Coviello and the current membership is 253. Father Foley acts as Spiritual Director for the group which attends Mass and Communion in a body on the second Sunday of each month followed by a meeting in the Parish Center. Like the Sodality, programs are scheduled to which all the men of the parish are invited. One of their past programs had Dave Powers, former Kennedy aide, as its speaker providing a most entertaining and informative program. Other such programs are scheduled for the forthcoming year.

In addition, the Holy Name Society sponsors many of the social events for the parish such as the St. Patrick's Day, Spring, and Fall Dances. Proceeds from these affairs have been used in the past to buy such items of equipment as the sound systems, curtains, lighting, etc., for the Parish Center.

Many of the men in the Holy Name Society also serve as ushers for Sunday and Holy Day Masses.

Lastly, we come to the CHOIR. The St. Therese Choir was first organized by Marie Hagman. It has been under the direction of Mary Bertolami for the past twenty-nine years. Through the years, Mrs. Bertolami has directed a number of choirs within the church such as the All Boys Choir, Youth Choir, and Junior Choir which not only sang at church services but at local hospitals as well. Some of the members of the present choir started in the various junior choirs and have remained throughout the years. Several of the city's professional men once sang with the choir. One former choir member has gained further recognition since by writing the Alma Mater for Northeastern University.

Outstanding in the choir's fund-raising achievements was its production of "Sun Bonnet Sue" done as a joint venture with the C.Y.O. which played to capacity at the Rockwood Auditorium during a two-night performance in 1949.

Since that time the St. Therese Choir has been singled out to perform on many occasions such as the dedication of the Don Orione Home in East Boston, and sang a special Mass at Christ the King Church at Merrimac College at the specific request of the Dean, Father McQuade. For three successive years, the combined choirs of St. Therese and St. Anthony performed the "Seven Last Words of Christ" during Holy Week services at both churches. The St. Therese Choir was one of twenty-two choirs chosen to do a Pentecostal Service, "Spirit of God," at St. Paul's Cathedral in Cambridge.

The choir sings at the 11:30 Mass every Sunday and at all Holy Day Masses.

It is always pleasant and rewarding in the life of any church to look back . . . we call it remembering. But this is truly a story with a beginning and no real ending in sight. St. Therese's Church . . . 43 years young and still growing! As for the future? One can only be certain that as it served those in the beginning, it will continue to serve those of us present at this reunion, and the generations to come.

THANKS A "MILLION"

We have come to the end of our book, and it is finally time for us to express our deep gratitude:

— TO OUR ADVERTISERS AND SPONSORS. Please help us say "thank you" by patronizing them.

— TO THE REUNION COMMITTEE, we here express our warmest, warmest gratitude, and beg God to reward them.

— TO ALL OF YOU WHO HAVE ATTENDED and made this such a pleasant evening, we say "thank you."
